

Quick steps for installation:

open the repository:

- Create backend server
- Write command `npm install` it will install all the package that are required to run the app
- In front end write command `npm start` :

And result will be :

